WHAT DOES COOPERATIVE EXTENSION SERVICE FEDERAL CREDIT UNION DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- ❖ Social Security number and income;
- ❖ Account balances and payment history
- ❖ Credit history and credit scores

When you are no longer our member, we continue to share information about you according to our policies.

How?

All financial companies need to share members' personal information to run their everyday business – to process transactions, maintain customer accounts, and report to credit bureaus. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their members' personal information, the reason CESFCU chooses to share, and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information:	Does CESFCU share?	Can you limit my sharing?
